A good entry and a trade to match. All good fresh meat sold exceptionally well. Holly Beale led the way at £118 followed by NY Estates at £112 and Jeremy West's superb evenly matched Beltex at £104. Good to see Duncan Ellis with a superb run of lambs which really rang the bell.

Many more lambs wanted. Don't forget the show next Wednesday.

R Gorringe £79, £76, £64, RFF Brown £71, Station Farms £60, Castle Hill Farmers £60.

CULL EWES (201)

Nationally we are told is a bit of a disaster due to the fact they have been stockpiled for the end of Ramadan - not so at Hailsham - the factory men battled them from first to last. J Bourner £115, £105, £103, RFF Brown £104, H Arpino £99, R & D Marten £97, AR Uridge £96, Station Farms £93, £88, C Hart £88, G Browne £88.

EWES & LAMBS (30)

An absolute humdinger - Henry and Brian Osbourne doing very best business £112 per unit. Many more wanted, the buyers have grass and don't want to use their mowers (who can blame them)

Many more sheep wanted every Wednesday to keep the Hailsham flag flying.
